

Ruhlin named one of the Safest US Construction Firms

Sharon Center, Ohio – March 2009 –The Ruhlin Company was named one of the Safest Construction Companies in America by The Associated General Contractors of America (AGC). We competed for the Heavy Construction Division, 300,001 to 700,000 workhours category, at the 90th Annual AGC Convention in San Diego, CA. On March 2, 2009 we were awarded first place. We were recognized for the strength and unique aspects of our safety program, our commitment to safety and our overall safety performance during 2008. This award is a result of the Ruhlin Company's ongoing effort to provide a safe workplace for every person, on every project, every day.

We believe in a safety culture that promotes employee commitment, accountability and involvement. It is our culture to work safely and not endanger ourselves or others. We are continuously improving our safety program and conduct regular safety checks of our projects. Employees in every area of the company are given safety training regularly and are required to follow all safety procedures, at all times. To us, safety is of the utmost importance which is proven by our commitment to implementing our safety program. Receiving the Associated General Contractors' Construction Safety Excellence Award is a great honor and we thank each and every employee for their dedication to keeping everyone safe.
